The LG range have a most clumsy and virtually useless implementation of the headphone socket, which cuts out the speakers and all sound outputs. Also, the HDMI inputs do not pass through sound to SPDIF and optical outputs. I have no idea why they have done this. It seems pretty crazy to me. My old ...

A cassette deck is a type of tape machine for playing and recording audio compact cassettes. Consumer electronics formerly used the term deck to distinguish them from a tape recorder, the "deck" being part of a stereo component system, while a "tape recorder" was more portable and usually had a self-contained power amplifier (and often speakers). ...
