In case anyone wants to know. The Briggs model number for the engine used in the XUV 550 is a model #355447. Mine is running rich and does not like short trips and idling. The carburetor main jet is not adjustable. I have turned in the idle jet about half a turn (so it barely idles without surging) and that helped somewhat and there was no noticeable difference when running but it does help ...
