Innovation in its modern meaning is a "new idea, creative thoughts, new imaginations in form of device or method". Innovation is often also viewed as the application of better solutions that meet new requirements, unarticulated needs, or existing market needs. Such innovation takes place through the provision of more-effective products, processes, services, technologies, or business where $\phi_j = \text{cov}(x_j, w) / \text{var}(x_j)$. Equation is useful for understanding the direction and potential magnitude of any omitted variable's inconsistency. This equation shows that the OLS estimate of the endogenous variable's coefficient converges to the true value, β_j , plus a bias term as the sample size increases. The bias term is equal to the product of the effect of the omitted ...
