D4c 3204 Engine

Greetings, New to the forum and need to pick some brains. I'm looking for a D3 to add to my collection of brush clearing equipment. I've found one several hundred mile away for what looks like a decent price BUT it has a bad engine, claims it has ~5600 hours.

I was talking about the newer D4C. This one obviously is a direct drive. I would say if you have the books, both parts and service manual, which should be available if you don't have them, machinerytrader.com parts section should be able to help you in either used, new old stock or maybe aftermarket parts.
