The car was EXACTLY as described and that was shown in the pictures online. We had received a phone call (on a Sunday!) after emailing Jersey Motors through CarGurus. The salesman guaranteed that we would love the car. We drove an hour and a half from Pennsylvania to purchase the car and were not disappointed.

as i said there is no indication in any manuals for this problem. From both manuals it is a simple operation to remove both the front headrests but it seems the opposite. lol Someone at the dealer said that there might be a sensor in the headrest but neither this is indicated on the workshop manual.
